Nov. 5th YAC meeting

All members present (except Member Lassere)

Mrs. Kelly- sent information to help select goals as group continues forward.

-first question- "why did you want to serve your community in this capacity"

-articulate this for common goals and interests to work together

Member Valentine- wants more youth involved without bias. Would be more beneficial for city for more people involved.

Member Rogers- environment. Awareness! Help save it and get involved!

Member Bryant- continue youth involvement. Being part of local government.

-longevity. Important to establish initiatives so we can come back when we are older to a great community.

Member Boston- be role models for young. Form a better connection with citizens.

-hopes for an impact. Bunch of applications from getting word out.

Member Lilly- Get more information out

Recommendation's to make to our local decision makers

- City more beneficial with mental health. Having a representative from Starting Point.
- Important to get people interested and motivated in school. Being involved with people who don't have access to materials to succeed in education.
- Outreach to target failing grades

Increase/spread the importance for environment.

Getting word out about committee. More diverse applicants.

Ensure we are a committee that is all inclusive

Look to middle school student government. Speak to principal and vice principal

Show that YAC is interesting attractive. Public events

Social media (more specifically Instagram) OUTREACH!!!!

YAC takeover day on Instagram!

MORE DIVERSE!

Speak on what's going on right now in the world and about what's going on in minority groups

-GOING INTO SCHOOLS, maybe elementary schools. Contacting principals. Emma Love.

-would have to work on presentation in YAC meeting.

Environmental problems: education for sunscreen. Maybe outreach in hotels

Cool video edit including picking up litter and positive sunscreen usage. No walking on dunes. – video by member bryant

Leadership through modelling. Showing that we are having diversity conversations

Student counselors

Create YAC email ?? (maybe anonymous hotline) –QR code to google form

Submit agenda ideas 10 days before meeting!!!!
