Grants for Youth Programs

Purpose

Arts & Culture Nassau (ACN) grants program is intended to foster appreciation of and participation in arts and culture for the youth of Nassau County. It is our belief that fostering arts and culture appreciation among youth will create a lifelong appreciation. Grants are designed to foster youth projects in Nassau County arts and culture organizations.

Guidelines

1. Organizations applying for the ACN grant must be non-profit (501(c)3), located in Nassau County, and dedicated to arts and/or culture.
2. ACN grants are intended for use on either new or ongoing projects.
3. Projects must be geared toward youth, preferably middle or high school age.
4. Grants are limited to $500 per organization. It is anticipated that up to four grants will be offered each year. If additional funds become available, this amount may be increased.
5. Grants to eligible organizations must be expended within a calendar year.
 - a. Grant awards will be disbursed AFTER the award organization has disbursed funds for the eligible expenditure.
 - b. The award organization must submit a reimbursement form along with a copy of the invoice(s) paid as well as a copy of the cancelled payment check(s) to receive the grant funds.
 - c. These should be submitted to: Parks and Recreation 2500 Atlantic Avenue Fernandina Beach, FL 32034 Attention: Scott Mikelson
 - d. Reimbursements can be incremental.
 - e. The organization will be expected to submit a grant close out form of how the grant funds were actually used within 2 months of the end of the calendar in which the funds were expended along with copies of the reimbursement form(s)

used to secure reimbursement. This should be sent to: Parks and Recreation 2500 Atlantic Avenue Fernandina Beach, FL 32034 Attention: Scott Mikelson

- f. In the past, grant recipient organizations were expected to participate in an annual ACN Community Forum with a short presentation pertaining to the use of the grant funds. However due to the pandemic the Community Forum event has been suspended. However, there may be opportunities for your organization to interact with the public on the benefit of the grant. If these opportunities arise, we will contact you.

Submission instructions:

- The following application should be submitted in writing to Fernandina Beach Parks and Recreation Department 2500 Atlantic Avenue Fernandina Beach, FL 32034 Attention: Scott Mikelson
- Applications will be accepted from December 1 through January 15. No applications will be accepted after the announced deadline.
- Applications will be judged, and grants awarded by a panel of 3 persons selected by the County and not affiliated with any of the Arts Council organizations and not a part of any county arts and culture organization. Awards will be announced by March 15.

To what project/program for youth will the grant funds be applied?

What is the goal of this project/program?

The goal of this project is to present classical music for children of all ages and backgrounds to enjoy. This year we have chosen Edvard Grieg's most popular work, the Peer Gynt Suite.

How does this project/program encourage youthful participation in arts and culture?

Today, The Peer Gynt Suite is considered to be one of the best examples of beautiful melodic "picture painting." Children (and adults) will especially enjoy two of its best-known movements: "Morning" and "In the Hall of the Mountain King". Dancers from Susan Dodge's Amelia Island Dance Festival and artists from Lauren Templeton's Amelia Art Studio interpret the music live on stage. Students from the Amelia Art Studio will also create artwork inspired by Grieg's music. Their work will be on exhibit at the concert. The presentation was developed in association with the Young Patrons Program of AICMF. Local actor Frank O'Donnell will narrate the story. A Trio of musicians including Christopher Rex, cello, Elizabeth Pridgen, piano, and violinist Helen H. Kim provide the Inspiration for the dancers and artists.

How does this project/program relate to the organization's mission?

The program is geared to present great musical artists to diverse audiences and promotes local businesses and tourism by attracting music lovers from Nassau County, northeast Florida, and beyond. Since it is geared toward children, it will offer music education to local students and aspiring musicians.

Is this an ongoing project? Yes X No

When did the project/program begin? 2018

How has it been received by the community?

Our past concerts in our Young Patrons Program have included Saint-Saëns's Carnival of the Animals and Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf. These concerts have been sold out and the audiences were very enthusiastic about them. The children especially loved the music and were enthusiastic participants.

How will the grant fund impact the existing budget?

It will offset the cost of the artist and production fees.

How do you expect the project to impact or benefit your community?

This project involves multiple youth organizations in Nassau County, the AICMF, Susan Dodge's Amelia Island Dance Festival and artists from Lauren Templeton's Amelia Art Studio. Project Centre Stage

At Blue Fire Theatre (BFT), our mission statement is: To enrich and contribute to our community through the performing arts. Part of our contribution is Arts Education. We are committed to offering performing arts educational opportunities for all area youths. Project Center Stage will bring performing arts education to any interested youth 7- 18 years on a pay what you can basis.

There will be no set fee for the program. Each family will register online and be able to pay what they can afford. This program will give any young person, regardless of their ability to pay, race, creed, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, age, height, weight, and physical abilities the opportunity to learn more about all aspects of theatre. Project Centre Stage is planned as a half day workshop focusing on different aspects of the performing arts. Instructors will teach, acting, improv, vocal techniques, musical theatre, movement, production (lights, sound etc..) and a variety of theatre exercises. The program is planned to take place three times a year. We will also offer a limited number of scholarships.

Benefit to the community – there always seems to be a lack of funding in our education system to keep the arts programs alive. BFT is dedicated to helping supplement the arts for area youth that wish to participate. Studies show that, in many respects, adolescent who participate in the arts achieve significantly more positive developmental outcomes. Providing a comprehensive education for our children, both in and outside of school, improves our community. Studies repeatedly show the positive effects on students when the arts are part of a well-rounded education. This information was found in a study by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Blue Fire Theatre is opening the arts, via a workshop, to any area youth interested in participating. By setting the registration fee on a pay what you can structure, it allows anyone ages 7-18 years old the opportunity to participate regardless of ability to pay.

Organization's Mission Statement: Our mission is twofold: to discover, highlight and promote the rich and diverse history and culture of Nassau County, especially the western half; and also to maintain and upkeep of the historic 1881 Callahan Train Depot. The Historical Society achieves both goals by hosting cultural events as Railroad Day, Hobo Day, history tours, museum displays, art shows and art classes, using the historic Callahan Depot as the main venue for these events. By hosting these many events within the walls of the 140-year-old depot and museum, we are exposing our members, volunteers, and participants to both our rich history and culture that is Nassau County.

Amount of Grant request ($500 maximum) $500

To what project/program for youth will the grant funds be applied? We will apply the grant towards our fourth annual student-oriented summer art classes scheduled over a 2-week period in the summer of 2022. Our inaugural 2019 were a huge success with 28 students enrolling and our two sets of classes in 2021 were well attended despite the ongoing COVID pandemic. Monies from the grant will cover the purchasing art supplies such as canvases, paints, brushes, as well as increased Facebook and Newsprint advertising.

What is the goal of this project/program? The goal is to encourage school-aged children to explore their artistic interests through several art media in a historic building setting. Each of the 3 classes will be geared toward a specific age group and will focus on different art media such as painting and drawing. Each assignment will use our history as a theme which will connect the history with culture. The 2-week period will be capped off by us hosting a public ice cream social where the students will display their finished art work.

How does this project/program encourage youthful participation in arts and culture? The goal is to invite school-aged children to explore their artistic interests through several art media inside a historic building setting. We are fortunate to have several retired art teachers and professors in the area that are willing to teach these classes. Retired Stony Brook art professor and Historical Society member Elizabeth Karoly taught our inaugural classes. Retired Nassau County art teacher, Erica Dodge, taught our 2nd and 3rd sets of classes. Each of the 3 art classes are geared toward a pre-assigned age group so the itinerary of each class will be designed with their age in mind. Topics such as railroads or historic structures will connect the children to the history and culture of the area. The 2-week period is capped off by us hosting a public ice cream social where the students are encouraged to display their finished art work.

How does this project/program relate to the organization's mission? By using history as a theme for the assignments, our summer student art classes allows school-aged children to explore their artists interests while our history as a learning tool. The Ice cream Social/Art Exhibition brings students, children, parents and adults to a cultural event inside our train depot and museum where our history artifacts, photos and map are a rich backdrop to the students' displayed art works.

Is this an ongoing project? Yes X No

Will the grant funds be used to continue or expand the project/program? Continue. These grant funds will allow us to conduct 3 2-hour art sessions. It will also allow us to advertise more on Facebook where we can selectively advertise to school-aged children who may be interesting in participating.

If expansion of the project/program is to be funded, please explain the expansion plan.

N/A

When did the project/program begin? Summer 2022, dates TBA

How has it been received by the community? Our inaugural art classes in 2019 were a huge success with 28 children attending. The second was delayed by the COVID breakout, so both the 2nd and 3rd classes were held in 2021 and well attended. More children who were unaware of the summer art classes attended the Ice Cream Social and Exhibition and showed interest in attending our 2022 classes. The classes were also covered by our local newspapers. The final art show exhibition at our summer ice cream social was well attended.

Our classes are open to all students who are in the age range of each class regardless of their background. We have historical society members who are willing to assist any youth who cannot afford the class fees

How has the project been funded previously? The 2019 Children's Summer Art Classes were funded by class fees, in-kind donations and monies from our general fund. The 2020 classes (postponed until winter 2021) and 2021 youth art classes were both funded in part by Art and Culture Nassau Grants. Any expenses over $500 were paid through our general fund.

What is the existing budget?

$250. Art supplies such as canvas, paints, brushes, etc.

$125. Print newspaper advertising.

$125. Facebook advertising.

$100 Food and Refreshments for student art work display during Ice Cream Social

$150 Class instructors' honorarium

$750 Total

How will the grant fund impact the existing budget?

The $500 arts and culture grant would cover the cost of art supplies and advertising (a majority of the budget) for the 2-week summer class period

How do you expect the project to impact or benefit your community?

We feel our past summer youth art classes were a success because it provided a venue for students, especially those from the Westside and rural areas, to experience art and history in a warm and inviting setting. Ms. Karoly, a seasoned and talented art professor, and Erica Dodge, a retired and seasoned art teacher, provided each student with hands-on instruction and insightful knowledge that these students may not have been able to receive otherwise. Our ice cream social/art exhibition provided a means for these art students to display their works in a public setting with historical society members, family and friends. We are confident our 4th annual summer children art classes will do the same.
