Mr. Jack Heard

1305 Atlantic Avenue
Fernandina Beach, Florida 32034

Dear Mr. Heard:

You may recall that Geralynn Picinich, formerly with the City of Fernandina Beach Recreation Department, discussed with you the possibility of purchasing a marker for the Sesquicentennial Time Capsule that was buried on the Chamber of Commerce depot property in November 1995 during the Heritage Festival.

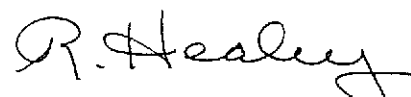

I am not sure who will fund this marker, but if the City pays the full amount, I have to follow our purchasing policy by getting three price quotes for any expenditure over $500. I would be interested in discussing with you the possibility of purchasing a nice, small marker for under $500 with the following inscription:

SESQUICENTENNIAL TIME CAPSULE
NOVEMBER 1995 TO 2045
THE CITY OF FERNANDINA BEACH

Thank you for taking the time to consider this request.

Sincerely,

FERNANDINA BEACH RECREATION DEPARTMENT

Vicki -

Here's a copy of the list of items contained in the Time Capsule buried in front of the Chamber of Commerce
Train Depot on Centre Street.

We have a marker that will be placed there
to mark the location.
